He Thanks The People.

To the People of Florida: I wish to express my high appreciation for the vote given me in the recent primary election. I feel profoundly grateful. Before and during my candidacy I was a Floridian. I am a Floridian now. I hope every one will feel that they are Floridians, and this imposes upon them the duty of working for the prosperity, growth and development of our great State. This can be best accomplished by inculcating a spirit of kindness and good fellowship. I trust that all unpleasantness engendered during the late political campaign will soon be, like the campaign itself, a thing of the past. Had I been defeated, I would simply have said, I regret I did not receive enough votes.

In conclusion, I wish to express my thanks to the people of Florida for giving me not only enough votes but many more than enough to nominate me for the high office of Governor of the great State of Florida.

Very Sincerely,
ALBERT W. GILCHRIST.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE (CO-EDUCATIONAL) Lake City, Fla.

Columbia College offers splendid opportunities for young men and young women who wish to fit themselves for usefulness and success in life. While we aim at Mental Culture, the Practical is not overlooked and Moral Training is emphasized.

The organization of the College into the several schools covers the entire Education of the Student:

- I. THE SCHOOL OF ACADEMIC GRADES—Preparatory to the College Classes.

A Great Land Opening.

A number of exceptional opportunities are now being offered by the Government for enterprising and intelligent farmers to secure choice farms on a dozen or more large irrigation projects which are nearing completion.

Owing to the rapid narrowing of the limits of the unoccupied public domain, it is doubtful if these opportunities will ever occur again. It is probable, therefore that the West will see one of the greatest influxes of homeseekers in 1908 that has been witnessed in many years.

The great fertility and wonderful crop yields from irrigated lands, and the favorable terms the Government offers settlers, warrants the belief that before the year closes not a single farm will be without its entryman. These farms are located in North Dakota, Montana, Wyoming and Nevada.

A letter addressed to The Stationer, U. S. Reclamation Service, Washington, D. C., will secure full information concerning the location, soil, climate, crop possibilities, and terms of disposal.

Help for Those Who Have Stomach Trouble.

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctors' fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—Samuel Boyer, Folsom, Iowa. This medicine is for sale by W. B. Davis & D. G. Smith. Samples free.

Provisions have been made to place a statue of Gen. Kirby E. Smith for Florida in the national Hall of Fame.

The Remedy That Does.

"Dr. King's New Discovery is the remedy that does the healing others promise but fail to perform," says Mrs. E. R. Pierson, of Auburn, Centre, Pa. "It is curing me of throat and lung trouble of long standing, that other treatments relieved only temporarily. New Discovery is doing me so much good that I feel confident its continued use for a reasonable length of time will restore me to perfect health." This renowned cough and cold remedy and throat and lung healer is sold at all drug stores. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Millard Wingate, who lived near the draw bridge between Fernandina and Yulee, was killed by the train one night last week.

Mays Issues a Statement.

Dannette H. Mays, who, on the face of the returns, has received a majority of the votes of the third congressional district for congress, whose nomination is contested by J. Walter Kehoe on the ground that some of the Mays precincts returned more votes than there were qualified electors in the precincts, has issued the following statement:

To the people of the Third Congressional District of Florida:

I have a clear majority of 48 of all the votes cast in the last Democratic primary over my opponent Mr. Kehoe, counted and tabulated by the county committees of each county, the same committees that counted the votes that nominated county officers, that nominated our senator, governor, and railroad commissioner, given me by the people in their own right. I claim no other treatment than that accorded the candidates in this primary—that my vote be counted and the result declared as theirs has been. Yet by a vote of less than one-half of the district committee at the suggestion of Mr. Kehoe, they have adjourned without declaring the result. This adjournment was taken until July 15th, proximo. What is it for? Judging from some of the flimsy pretexts and technicalities, so far urged as reasons for throwing out the votes of precincts in various counties that gave me clear majorities it is but fair to presume that this adjournment is solely for the purpose of further machinations to circumvent and defeat the expressed will of a majority of our people. Will the good people of the third congressional district sanction this effort to annul their will as expressed in the primary? Will you do it?

Very truly,

D. H. MAYS

Lee county will hold a wet and dry election on July 1st. DeSoto wants the drys to win, and they will win in spite of booze and bootleg.

Max Moritz, who has been at the head of the State Federation of Labor for two terms, has resigned, to look after his private business.

This is what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol for Dyspepsia: "E. C. Dawitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Dear Sir—I have suffered more than twenty years from indigestion. About eighteen months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 lbs; in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity may be benefited. Yours very truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904." Sold by W. B. Davis.

RUN-OVER LOCALS

R. H. Ely of Jacksonville was a visitor here several days this week.

Hazel Harrell was a visitor to Madison Tuesday from Cherry Lake.

Masters Joe and Carroll Blalock after a visit to relatives in Valdosta will be home to-morrow.

Mrs. D. P. Beasley of Jacksonville is spending a few weeks in Madison the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. E. Weeks.

Mrs. Randall Walker and baby of Valdosta are spending a few days in Madison, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Coggins.

Dr. Ruter and Walter Bunting arrived home the latter part of last week after taking a two weeks outing at Econfina Springs. They report a fine time and plenty of fish.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system and at the same time it allays inflammation and stops irritation. Children like it. Sold by W. B. Davis.

The "glorious Fourth" happening to fall this year on Saturday, and that being the busiest day of the week, our merchants have agreed to celebrate on Friday, the 3rd, and we understand that all the stores will be closed on that day.

Mrs. Robt. Millner will give in honor of her sister, Miss Barnard Morrow a house party from Friday until Tuesday at her palatial home in Ellaville. The young ladies that are to go from here are, Misses Ruby Drew, Annie Beagles, Mary Burton and Barnard Morrow.

Prof. and Mrs. Walter B. Cate with little Metham left Tuesday for the mountains of Tennessee where they will spend the summer vacation. We are glad to know that the professor has recovered from his recent sickness and we hope that the pure mountain air will speedily build up his strength and completely restore his health.

The "Boy's League," under the chaperonage of Rev. C. Fred Blackburn, is enjoying a picnic on the banks of Lake Rachel to-day. The boys of this league are fortunate in having the care and attention of their leader, Rev. Blackburn, and that reverend gentleman is doing a work for the boys which is bound to make for the good of their future lives.

There is one preparation known today that will promptly help the stomach. This is Kodol. Kodol digests all classes of food, and it does it thoroughly, so that the use of Kodol for a time will without doubt help anyone who has stomach disorders or stomach troubles. Take Kodol today and until we fit for the short time that is necessary to give you complete relief. Kodol is sold by W. B. Davis.

Columbus B. Smith returned Tuesday night from Pablo Beach where he had been since Saturday with Mrs. Smith. We are glad to be able to state that Mrs. Smith's health is rapidly improving, and another few days at the beach inhaling the invigorating salt breeze will give her much strength. She expects to leave the beach to-morrow and will go to Monticello for a stay of about two weeks after which she will return home.

A Change in Temperature.
"I hear the audience last night was rather cold?" said Hi Tragedy.
"They were at first," replied Lowe Comedy, "but when they remembered that they had paid good money to see the show they got hot."—Catholic Standard and Times.

The Worst Part.
"So your daughter is going to marry a 'tittle'?" said the old acquaintance.
"No," answered Mr. Cumrox, "it's worse than that. She's got to take a fellow that I don't like along with it."—Washington Star.

His Coat of Arms.
Mrs. Newrich—Don't you think, William, now we are getting into the smart set that we should have a coat of arms? Mr. N.—Certainly, my dear. I'll see my tailor about it to-morrow.—London Opinion.

A Bit of Sarcasm.
A young man who had prolonged his call on his sweetheart a few nights ago was surprised when a window in an upper story was raised as he left the house and the voice of the mistress called out: "Leave an extra quart this morning please!"—Argonaut.

SHEPHERD CARVERS.

The Lonely Sheep Tenders of the California Sierras.

There are few lonelier lives in the world than those lived by shepherds in the high meadows of the California Sierras. All alone they follow their sheep, seeing no one for many months of the year but the sheep, their dogs and perhaps an occasional—a very occasional—traveler. Probably this solitude dries up the springs of speech, for they are said to be very silent when they do encounter any one.

One of these strange men is a Basque from the Pyrenees. A lean, dark visaged, ragged fellow, he is now and then overtaken by some wanderer in the mountains. Along the trail before him his sheep feed. His mongrel collie hangs at his heels. He may raise his stick in mute salutation; he may slouch by without a sign. Yet this uncouth being has one talent—he can carve. His amusement is carving quaint sheep buckles out of bone. Every herd has its bellwether, about whose neck hangs a bell. The bell depends from a leather collar, and it is the buckles of these collars that this old Basque shepherd and some of these other Sierra shepherds make in the course of their lonely days. Sometimes a buckle represents a summer's work, for some of them are very elaborate. Some are in the semblance of skulls or angels, some have the monograms of the sheep owners or of the shepherds in curious designs. All are patiently cut, bit by bit, with the pocketknife of the shepherd.—Exchange.

Advantage of White Hair.
"Most people regard white hair as a misfortune," said a hairdresser. "They mourn over its coming as a sign of vanished youth, and they try first one thing and then another to withstand this touch of time. I think they make a mistake. Paradoxical as it may sound, white hair, when it arrives, say, in the late twenties or early thirties, really helps in keeping a person young. It's true, anyhow. A man or woman whose hair turns white before the wrinkles arrive is a subject for congratulation, because for many years he or she will appear about the same, and if only proper care is taken of the complexion the impression of youthfulness will continue—I was almost going to say indefinitely. Then, white hair is more often than not extremely becoming. It relieves a heavy face and gives an added tone to the most spiritless one. People don't realize this; that's all. If they did, they would be content to let nature take its course."—Exchange.

How Different Races Bear Pain.
Morning and evening as if she were being tortured to death, a colored woman sat in the accident ward at Jefferson hospital. "Don't wind dat bandage so tight, doctor," she begged of an interne who was skillfully putting a bandage on her foot; "you'll stop de circulation, sure." Wondering what dreadful calamity had befallen the suffering woman, a visitor asked another doctor what was the matter with her. He said nothing but a slight cut on the bottom of her foot. "Colored people always make a great disturbance over any physical injury," he added. "But the Italians are the worst. The night of a little wound seems to upset them entirely, and they come in here shrieking and crying, accompanied by anxious friends and relatives also shrieking and crying, over the slightest cut or burn. Americans and Germans seem to bear pain with the most fortitude, and in general women do better than men."—Philadelphia Record.

Her Fourth.
Lawyer—As your husband died intestate, you will of course get a third. Widow—Oh, I hope to get my fourth. He was my third, you know.—Town and Country.

Modern Plays and Players.
We no longer demand that a man or woman play a part. We insist that the part fit the man or woman. This condition no doubt is largely the fault of managers, who instead of requiring impersonation pick performers for their likeness to the characters to be assumed. "Have you a father?" one can imagine them inquiring of a candidate. "Yes." "Then you won't do. This man's father died twenty years before the beginning of the play."—Argonaut.

Reformed.
"Did she marry her husband to reform him?"
"I guess so. She reformed him, all right."
"Why, he drinks like a fish."
"I know it, but he didn't use to be fore she married him."—Houston Post.
